

Special Events Application

The City of Doraville thanks you for your interest in hosting your special event in our city. Our diverse community is one that enjoys its cultural events, parades, sporting events, festivals, and many other events. For the safety of our community, we must obtain some important information so that we can guide and facilitate your special event.

Application for Permit:

A person seeking issuance of a special event permit shall file in writing an application with the office of the police on forms provided by the City. Such application shall be filed not less than fourteen (14) days nor more than sixty (60) days before the date on which the proposed special event is to be conducted. The application shall be signed by the applicant and by the special event leader, if other than the applicant. A nonrefundable application fee of twenty-five dollars ($25.00) shall be paid at the time the application for a permit is filed. Such fee shall be payable to the City of Doraville by cash, money order, or cashier's check.

Standards for Issuance:

The director of public safety shall issue a special event permit as provided for in this article when, from a consideration of the application and from such other information as may otherwise be obtained, it is determined:

- The conduct of the special event will not substantially interrupt the safe and orderly movement of other traffic contiguous to its route or place of occurrence;
- The conduct of the special event will not require the diversion of so great a number of police officers of the City to properly police the line of movement and the areas contiguous thereto as to prevent normal police protection to the City;
- The concentration of persons, animals and vehicles at assembly points of the special event will not unduly interfere with proper fire and police protection of, or ambulance service to, areas contiguous to the assembly areas;
- The conduct of the special event will not unreasonably interfere with the movement of firefighting equipment in route to a fire;
- The conduct of the special event is not likely to cause injury to persons or property, to provoke disorderly conduct or to promote immediate lawless activity;
- The special event is scheduled to move from its point of origin to its point of termination expeditiously and without unreasonable delays;
- The information contained in the application is not found to be false or nonexistent in any material detail; and
- The applicant agreed to abide by or comply with all conditions of the permit, in particular, the responsibility to clean all areas used.

Duties of Special Event Permittee:

- A permittee shall comply with all permit directions and conditions and with all applicable local, state and federal laws and ordinances.
- The special event leader shall carry the special event permit upon his or her person during the conduct of the special event.

Public Conduct during Special Event:

- It shall be unlawful for any person to hamper, obstruct, impede or interfere with any special event or with any person, animal or vehicle participating or used in a special event.
- The chief of police or a designated representative shall have the authority to prohibit or restrict the parking of vehicles along a roadway constituting a part of the route of a special event. When necessary, the police department shall post signs to the effect and it shall be unlawful for any person to park or leave unattended any vehicle in violation thereof. Police officers may cause to be impounded any vehicle unlawfully parked in violation of this article.

Special Event Prohibitions:

- It shall be unlawful for any person at any special event to carry or possess any weapon, as defined below. For purposes of this article, and notwithstanding any other provisions of this Code, "weapon" means any pistol, rifle, shotgun or other firearm of any kind, whether loaded or unloaded, air rifle, air pistol, paintball gun, paintball rifle, explosive, blasting cap(s), knife, hatchet, ax, slingshot, blackjack, metal knuckles, mace, iron buckle, ax handle, chains, crowbar, hammer, shovel, or any club, bludgeon or any other instrument used, or intended to be used, as a dangerous weapon.
- It shall be unlawful for any person to carry or possess at any special event, any sign, poster, plaque or notice unless such sign, poster, plaque, or notice is constructed solely of cloth, paper or flexible cardboard material no greater than one-quarter (¼) inch in thickness.
- It shall be unlawful for any person to carry or possess at any special event, any length of lumber, wood or wood lath unless it is one-fourth (¼) inch or less in thickness and two (2) inches or less in width or if not generally rectangular in shape, such object shall not exceed three-quarters (¾) inch in its thickest dimension. Both ends of the length of lumber, wood or wood lath shall be blunt and shall not be pointed. Exceptions from this section include:
 - Lumber or wood used to support or control puppets, so long as the lumber or wood is not detached from the puppets; and
 - Stilts, defined as two (2) poles with footrests off the ground on which someone balances or walks, so long as each stilt does not exceed fifteen (15) feet in length and two (2) inches by two (2) inches in width.
- It shall be unlawful for any person to carry or possess at any special event, any length of metal, plastic or other similar hard or stiff material, whether solid or hollow; provided that hollow plastic does not exceed three quarters (¾) inch in its thickest dimension, does not exceed one-eighth (1/8) inch in wall thickness and is not filled with any material, liquid, gas or solid, may be used to support a sign, banner, placard or other similar display; however, both ends of the length of plastic material shall be blunt and not pointed.
- It shall be unlawful for any person to carry or possess at any special event, glass bottles, glass jars or glass containers of any kind, unless such glass container is a vial required to hold medication customarily stored in a glass vial.
- It shall be unlawful for any person to carry or possess at any special event balloons filled with any material or substance other than air, oxygen or helium. Such materials and substances include, but are not limited to water, paint or any other liquid, solid or gas.
- It shall be unlawful for any person to carry or possess at any special event, bricks, stones, rocks, or pieces of asphalt or concrete. No person may carry or possess with the intent to unlawfully use any such hard materials or substances or pieces of hard materials or substances capable of being thrown or projected.
- It shall be unlawful for any person to carry or possess at any special event, spray paint cans.
- It shall be unlawful for any person to carry or possess at any special event, any projectile launcher or other device which is commonly used for the purpose of launching, hurling or throwing any object, liquid, material or other substance, including but not limited to, so-called Supersoaker-type water guns and cannons. Nothing in this subsection is intended to prohibit or restrict those participating in the special event from possessing sufficient amounts of water or other liquids designed and intended for human consumption during such events.
- It shall be unlawful for any person to carry or possess at any special event, any so-called "Sleeping Dragon Device", with the intent or ability to use the device to deny or obstruct the public's ability to freely move about on roadways, sidewalks or into or out of buildings. For purposes of this subsection, a Sleeping Dragon Device shall mean a section of pipe, or a container, filled with weighted material, handcuffs, chains, carabineers or other locking devices used to lock a person or persons to other objects.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit a disabled person from carrying, possessing or using a wheelchair, cane, walker, or similar device necessary for providing mobility so that the person may participate in a special event.

Nothing in this section is intended to authorize the possession or use of materials, weapons or devices that are otherwise prohibited by any other federal, state or local law or regulation. The purpose of this section is to prohibit the carrying or possession of items and materials that have the potential to be used as weapons to cause physical or property damage, and whose possession might not otherwise be prohibited by federal, state or local law.

Nothing in this section shall prohibit duly authorized law enforcement officers from carrying or possessing materials, weapons and/or devices used in the performance of law enforcement duties.

Distribution of Material during Parade or Procession:

It shall be unlawful for any person to distribute or cause to be distributed from any vehicle participating in a parade or procession in the public streets any item to any spectator or bystander. The term "vehicle" shall include any device which moves on wheels under its own power or otherwise.

Banners, Signs, etc.:

Temporary, noncommercial banners or signs may be permitted overhead across public streets for the purpose of designating "starting" and "finish" lines for a race. Small banners, pennants, signs or other decorations which do not interfere with vehicular or pedestrian traffic, and which do not damage or deface any tree or public structure, may be allowed as part of a special event. Approval of the building inspection department shall be obtained by the special event leader for any banners or signs permitted in this section. The special event leader shall be responsible for the removal of such banners, pennants or decorations within forty-eight (48) hours after the close of the event.

Revocation of Permit:

The director of public safety or a designated representative shall have the authority to revoke a special event permit at any time during conduct of the special event in the event of failure to conform to or comply with the standards for issuance as set forth in section 17-31. The director of public safety or a designated representative may at any time revoke a parade permit when, by reason of disaster, public calamity, riot or other emergency, the safety of public or private property requires such revocation.

Permit Fees:

- The fee for a permit to conduct a special event shall be based on all services to be provided by the City for such event and shall be equal to the estimated actual cost to the City to provide such services. The initial permit fee shall be the aggregate of the estimated costs of such services calculated by each City department. If, at the conclusion of the event, the cost of City services is greater than the initial payment, the special event leader shall be billed for the difference. Failure to pay the outstanding amount within thirty (30) days of the billing date shall be a violation of this article.
- The initial permit fee must be paid in full prior to the issuance of a permit and no later than seventy-two (72) hours prior to the date of the event.
- The fees required in this section shall be in addition to any other fees which may be required by any other ordinances or regulations that might be applicable

Indemnification Agreement:

Prior to the issuance of a special event permit, the permit applicant or duly authorized officer of the sponsoring organization must sign an agreement to reimburse the City for any costs incurred in repairing damage to City property resulting from or in connection with a permitted event. The agreement shall also provide that the permittee or sponsoring organization shall defend the City against, and indemnify and hold the City harmless from, any liability to or claims of liability by any persons resulting from any alleged damage or injury occurring in connection with the special event.

Insurance and Surety Bond:

The applicant or sponsoring organization must possess or obtain one (1) of the following:

- Public liability insurance to protect against loss from liability imposed by law for damages on account of bodily injury and property damage arising from the special event. The insurance shall name on the policy as additional insured the City, its officers, employees and agents. Insurance coverage shall be maintained for the duration of the event. A copy of the policy or a certificate of insurance, along with all necessary endorsements shall be filed with the City Clerk's office no later than seventy-two (72) hours before the date of the special event. The minimum limit of insurance is two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00); or
- A bond in the amount of two hundred fifty thousand dollars ($250,000.00) secured by a surety company licensed to do business in the state, payable to the City of Doraville or to any person in the City who may suffer any injury or damage from any vehicle, float, device or person participating in the special event. The bond shall be filed with the City Clerk's office no later than seventy-two (72) hours before the date of the special event.
